

Agreement for Academic Exchange and Collaboration Between
Loma Linda University
and
China Medical University, Republic of China (ROC) Taiwan

1. Loma Linda University and China Medical University, desiring to promote cooperation in education and academic research, agree to the following:
 - 1.1 Encourage exchange and visits in the following categories: bachelors level students, graduate students, non-teaching and post-graduate fellows, and junior and senior faculty members by.
 - 1.2 Exchange information and materials in the area of interest to both universities.
 - 1.3 Organize joint conferences and academic programs.
 - 1.4 Arrange joint research activities and publications.
2. Specific details for implementation and resources of any of the above listed activities will be negotiated, and developed as needs arise.
3. The Agreement will be in effect from the date of signature for a period of three years. It shall be extended automatically for an additional period of three years at each expiration date unless either party gives six months' advance notice in writing to terminate the Agreement.

Ronald Carter, Ph.D.
Vice Chancellor,
Loma Linda University

Jong-Tsun Huang, Ph.D.
President
China Medical University

Date: Dec. 17, 2008