

VARIATION TO AGREEMENT

The University of Newcastle (ABN 15 736 576 735) entered into a Memorandum of Understanding with China Medical University that commenced on 26 April 2016 to establish a cooperation program between the universities.

By this letter, the parties agree to vary that Agreement to include a new point (vi) in the Objectives section of the schedule to read: 'facilitate collaboration between the School of Nursing and Midwifery at the University and the School of Nursing at China Medical University in order to develop an International Masters of Nursing Degree'.

In all other respects the Agreement is unchanged and will continue in full force and effect. The variation affected by this letter will be effective from the date the final party signs this letter.
