Student Exchange Agreement between
School and Graduate Institute of Nursing
China Medical University

and

Alice Lee Centre for Nursing Studies
Yong Loo Lin School of Medicine
National University of Singapore

1. Introduction

This Agreement pertains to the exchange of students between the two institutions for a visit period of not more than four weeks.

2. Purpose

The aim is to promote nursing student exchange between the two institutions. The underlying principle will be mutual interest and mutual benefit. Based on this, there will be encouragement and support of visits. Each of the institutions will appoint one person to be specifically responsible for the programme.

3. Conditions of Exchange

- (a) Exchange students shall be full-time students registered with the home university. They shall be exempted from paying tuition fees (including application and registration fees) at the host institution.
- (b) The period of visit shall not be more than four weeks and the number of students shall not exceed six per year. The actual number of students participating in the exchange programme each year shall be agreed by both institutions prior to the exchange. Each institution shall endeavour to maintain the same number of students participating in the programme each year.
- (c) All transportation and meal costs shall be the responsibility of the individual student. Each institution shall make reasonable efforts to assist students participating in the exchange programme in finding suitable accommodation.
- (d) Students must purchase travel insurance before embarking on exchange.
- (e) There is no credit transfer between the two institutions. Exchange students are able to earn credits only from their home university.
- (f) All exchange students shall provide proof of current immunization records as required by the host institution as well as proof of their health and accident insurance.

4. Renewal

This Agreement shall take effect from 1 January 2020 and be valid for a period of two years unless otherwise renewed. The Agreement will be renewed automatically for another two years upon expiry. Either party may terminate this Agreement at any time by giving not less than six months written notice to the other party, provided that the institutions shall use their best efforts to ensure that visits or exchanges arranged prior to such termination will continue until completion.
