WHEREAS, both parties are higher education institutions with the full legal capacity to establish commitments, and whose mission includes providing quality learning opportunities for its students and communities, as well as promoting academic research;

WHEREAS both institutions consider that increasing opportunities for international cooperation and exchange increases cultural understanding and appreciation;

NOW, THEREFORE, Manipal Academy of Higher Education, India (hereafter MAHE), on behalf of its Board of Management, and China Medical University, Taiwan (hereafter CMU, Taiwan), agree to promote cooperation in education in medicine, engineering, humanities, social sciences, management, etc., according to the following clauses:

FIRST: This general agreement shall establish the criteria under which MAHE and CMU, Taiwan will carry out joint collaborative activities of mutual interest.

SECOND: Both parties agree to pursue the following forms of cooperation within mutually acceptable areas:

- a) Study tours to India and vice versa to CMU, Taiwan
- b) Exchange of graduate or undergraduate students
- c) Twinning/Dual Degree Programs
- d) Summer School Programs
- e) Exchange of academic personnel
- f) Cooperative development activities

- g) Cooperative design of courses, conferences, symposia, or academic programs
- h) Exchange of academic or scientific materials and publications of common interest
- i) Any other mutually agreed activity that would benefit both parties.

THIRD: all proposed projects, programs or work agreements including anything contemplated under a) through i) above, arising from this General Agreement, will be implemented as “Specific Agreements” of collaboration after they have been agreed upon and duly authorized by the official representatives of MAHE and CMU, Taiwan

FOURTH: All cooperative activities associated with academic courses and programs must be consistent with the accreditation requirements of both institutions. Consistency with accreditation principles will be included in all Specific Agreements associated with the implementation of academic courses and programs. This inter-institutional General Agreement does not imply the extension of accreditation from one institution to the other.

FIFTH: Any student, academic personnel, faculty, or scholar exchanges associated with this General Agreement must comply with all the legal and administrative requirements, including immigration, insurance and other applicable requirements, of the home and host institution. The specific requirements for the visits, as well as the financial implications for each institution, must be approved in writing by duly authorized personnel at each institution. The above reference exchanges must be established through a separate Specific Agreement.

SIXTH: Each party will designate its personnel to administer the activities associated with this General Agreement, as well as the development and implementation of any Specific Agreement. The personnel designated by each party to implement activities that arise from this agreement must hold current employment with the institution and will be solely responsible to the institution to which it is employed.
